

Your Natega of Public Secondary School in Egypt

Contributed by Egypt News
Wednesday, 18 July 2007

Let us inform you your result of the Public Secondary School certification on our website <http://egypt.com/natega> .....

Dr. Yousry el-Gamal Minister of Education announced the results of the high secondary school in Egypt

He announced that 56 student as a first student of Public Secondary School in Egypt, he added Heba Atef Abd el-Rahman Mahmoud is the first student this year of the Public Secondary School in Egypt.

The schoolgirl who got the first stage of all students was a student in El Shaimaa secondary school in Sohag district. She gains the final degree 410 from 410 as a full mark.

Meanwhile, Dr. el-Gamal has announced the first students names for the 2006/2007 certification of public Secondary School who said that the first student are about 56 students.

The minister said during a press conference that "the first students from the scientism section (science) were 21 students, were divided into 12 schoolgirls while schoolboys were 9 students" he added "the formal schools have 20 positions and the specific schools have 1 position"

He commented with respect to the scientism section (math) the schoolgirls were 18 but the schoolboys were 4 students.

He added the formal schools have 12 positions while the specific schools have 10 positions.

Dr. el-Gamal said that the student Waleed Farghali Mahdy Ali gains the first stage of the Eyeless Schools by totality 405 from el-Noor school for Eyeless in Banha.

Let us inform you your result of the Public Secondary School certification on our website <http://egypt.com/natega>

With best regards we hope the success for all students.

Team of www.Egypt.com website