Eisha Abdul Hadi

Egyptian Labour Force and Immigration Minister

Egyptian Labour Force and Immigration Minister Eisha Abdul Hadi on Tuesday discussed with Jordan's Ambassador to Egypt Hani Mulki means to boost bilateral cooperation in the labour sector

During the meeting, the two sides discussed Jordan's labour market needs, particularly in the fields of construction, agriculture and services.

They also reviewed measures to regulate the flow of Egyptian workers into Jordan through accredited work contracts that ensure labourers' legal residence in the Kingdom and protect their rights.

Discussions also covered means to exchange technical expertise in the fields of vocational and administrative training, inspection and vocational health and safety standards.
