Yemen's Foreign Minister Abu Bakr al-Qirbi held talks here on Sunday with his Egyptian counterpart Ahmed Aboul Gheit.

The talks dealt with the latest developments at the regional and international levels.

The two ministers also discussed the bilateral relations and cooperation areas between the two brotherly countries and ways of promoting them.

Egyptian Foreign Minister arrived in Sana'a last Saturday for a visit during which he delivered a letter from Egypt's President Hosni Mubarka to President Saleh.

The letter focused on the bilateral relationship between the two countries and the developments in the region topped by the situations in Iraq, Somalia and Palestine.
