Egyptian Alexandria Cotton Exporters' Association (Alcotexa) committed to sell 1,350 tonnes of cotton in the week that ended on October 31, a company official said

The sales comprised 50 tonnes of Giza 70, 285 tonnes of Giza 88 and 1,015 tonnes of Giza 86, the official said.

The deal brings Alcotexa's export commitments for the 2009/10 season, which began last month, to 14,724 tonnes of cotton worth $30.75 million, the official said.
