

FVP to Visit Cairo in Due Days

Contributed by Egypt News
Sunday, 02 December 2007

First Vice President Salva Kiir will visit Cairo, Egypt in few days to come in response to an invitation extended to him by Egyptian president Mubarak

The motive of the visit was to boost bilateral relationship between the two countries with special reference to development projects suggested be implemented by Egypt in the south. Besides bilateral relation Kiir should discuss with Egyptian president the dispute erupted between the national congress and SPLM on CPA out starting issue of the two partners such as Abyei.